This architectural drawing shows a side elevation of a building. The roofline is highly irregular, featuring a series of peaks and valleys. The building is divided into several vertical sections of varying widths. A horizontal line is drawn across the lower part of the facade, labeled 'Vergelijkingsvlak 7m.' (Comparison level 7m). To the left of the drawing, the text '21' is written, followed by 'lengteschaal 1/100' (length scale 1/100) and 'hoogteschaal 1/100' (height scale 1/100).
